
Read and Rhyme with Brown Owl®
Brown Owl at the Seashore
by Rachel Schmidlechner and Nadja Grace Bodner

Text Copyright © Rachel Schmidlechner 2020
Illustrations Copyright © Nadja Grace Bodner 2020
Moral rights asserted. All rights reserved.

Brown Owl at the Seashore

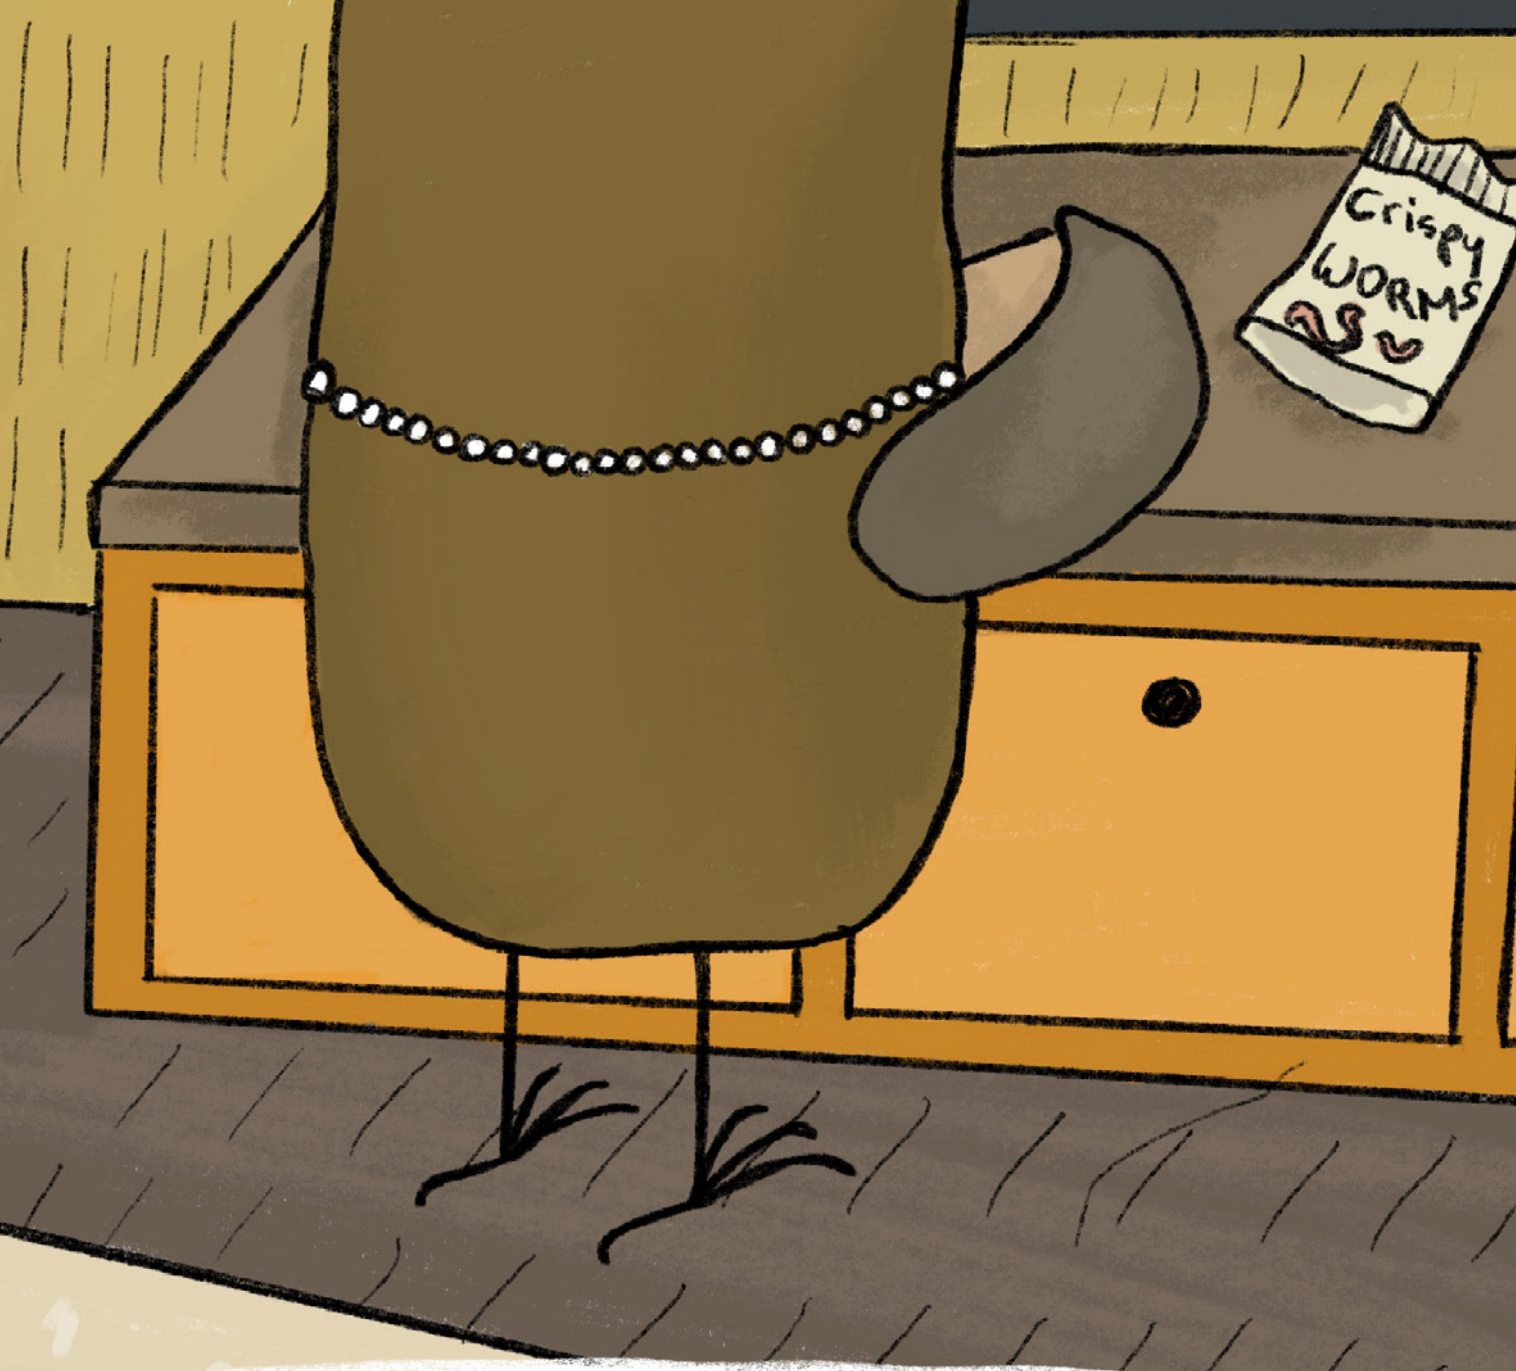

written by Rachel Schmidlechner
illustrated by Nadja Grace Bodner

My name is Brown Owl.
I live in this tree.
It’s sunny today.
Let’s go to the sea!

SUN
CREAM
for Owls

Mum and Dad,
it's time to pack!
We need sunglasses, sun cream,
books and a snack ...

FINISH

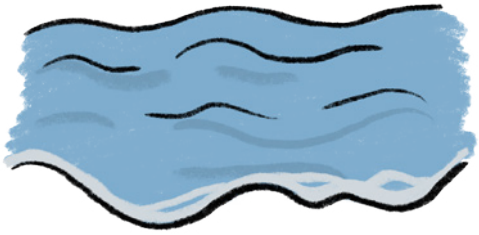

... buckets and spades,
balls and bats,
food and drink,
towels and mats!

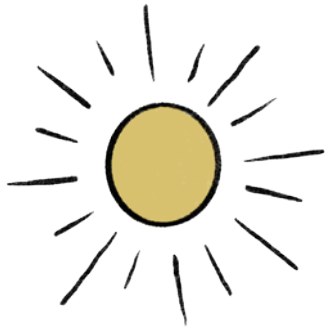

sandals

sandcastle

sea

sunny

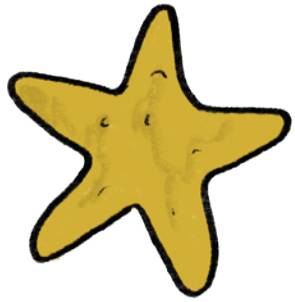

stones

spades

socks

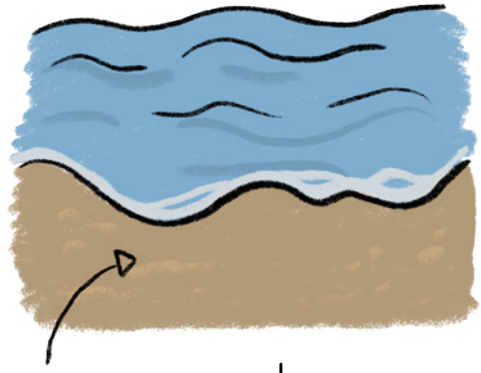

starfish

seagull

shells

seashore

snack

sunglasses

sun cream

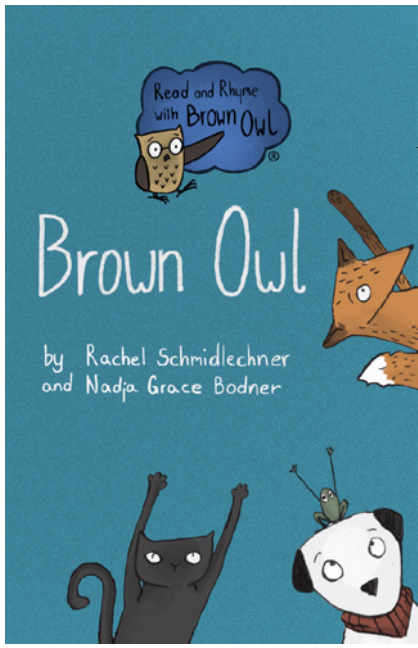

sun hat

4x 4x
5x

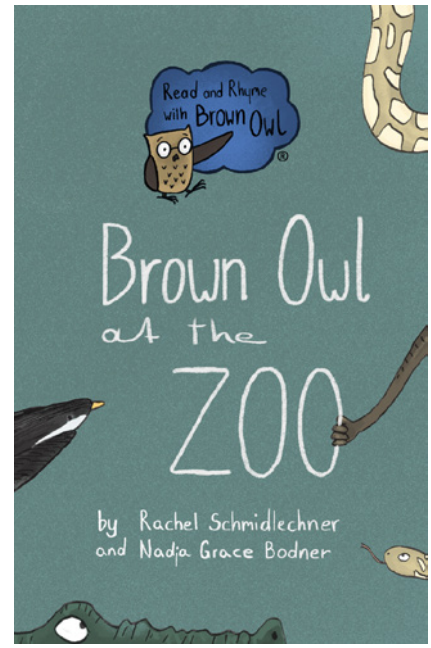

2x
5x
4x

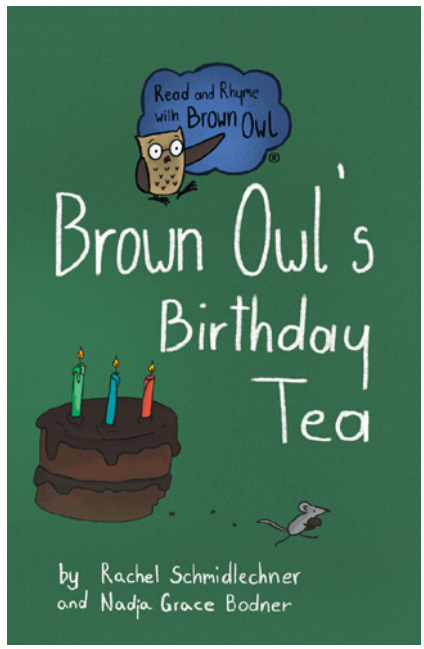

Other books in the series:

Book 1

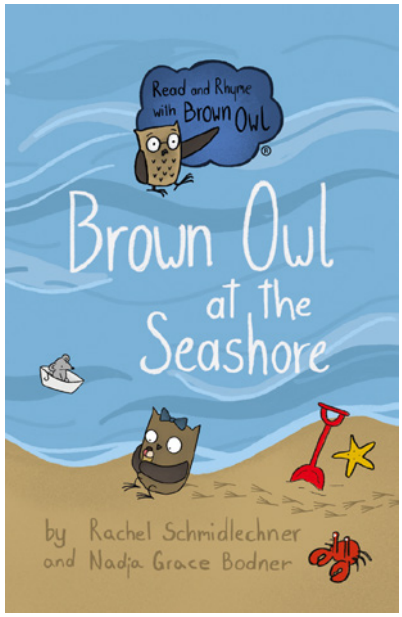

Book 2

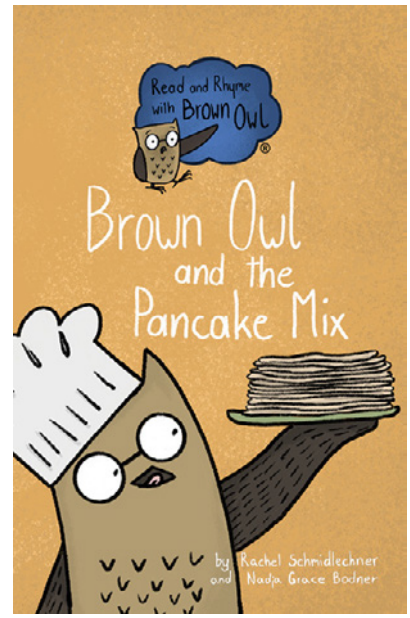

Book 3

Book 4

Book 6

Book 5

@read.and.rhyme.with.brown.owl

@readandrhyme

www.readandrhyme.at

There's lots to see
at the seashore.
Seashells, seagulls,
sand and more!

Read and Rhyme
with Brown Owl
A series of short rhyming
stories depicting the adventures of Brown Owl, friends and family.

